The NAVC is extending its popular educational platform to the great Northwest with a new immersive event

ORLANDO, FL — August 31, 2016 – The North American Veterinary Community (NAVC) is excited to announce that it will launch a new event in 2017 - NAVC Live: Portland - that features an all-new, immersive learning-focused experience.

- Five educational tracks
- 50-minute presentations and scientific lectures by seasoned veterinary speakers
- 15-minute talks from emerging thought-leaders in the animal health community
- Clinically relevant, on-topic, abstract presentations from leading researchers, residents and other interested industry partners
- Live streaming for specific tracks, providing opportunities for speaker interaction with virtual attendees
- Unique and engaging networking opportunities

Scheduled for August 20 - 23, 2017, NAVC Live: Portland will feature key tours and experience events for attendees in one of the West Coast's hottest travel destinations.

“We’ve been asked for many years to extend the NAVC brand to the West Coast and are pleased to now be able to respond with an innovative offering,” said NAVC CEO Thomas Bohn, CAE. “We have long had a flag firmly planted in Orlando and are now excited to plant a new one in Portland!”
